

The Stories of Cancer's Journey

by Joshua King of THAT THEY MAY

A powerful new artwork at CANCER SURVIVORS' PLAZA brings to life the inspiring stories of four cancer survivors. Through this special collaboration, the artwork captures their journeys – highlighting the struggles, triumphs and losses they faced in their battles against cancer. This meaningful piece serves as a tribute to their resilience and as a symbol of hope for all affected by cancer.

INSPIRE ART DALLAS, THE DALLAS OFFICE OF ARTS & CULTURE,
BAYLOR SCOTT & WHITE,
DOWNTOWN DALLAS INC., and
PLAZA OF THE AMERICAS
are coming together to commission
THAT THEY MAY STUDIOS.

The installation will span the Skybridge at Pearl and Bryan Street in Downtown Dallas, blocks from the Arts District, with plans to debut April 24th from 5 – 7p, during Dallas Arts Month.

- 1 CANCER SURVIVORS' PLAZA
- 2 Artwork Installation
- 3 Plaza of the Americas
- 4 Pearl Street Dart Station
- 5 Pearl Street

